October is Domestic Violence Awareness Month...learn with us

Technology:

Its Exploding Role

In Partner & Dating Violence

WHAT: An interactive Panel will discuss "The Explosion of Intimate Partner & Dating Abuse via Cell Phone and Computer".

WHO: Maine State Police Computer Crimes Detective, Augusta Police Department officer, a private sector techno-expert, a domestic violence educator, a Cony High School student rep, and a Kennebec County Assistant DA.

WHY: One of today's hot button topics is the illegal use of technology to stalk, harass, terrorize, and traffic... how can we stop it?

WHERE: Cony High School Cafeteria

WHEN: Wednesday October 11, 6:00 to 8:30

Students, parents, and community members: please join us to listen, learn, ask questions, share experiences, and brainstorm solutions. We will provide light refreshments and information tables as well. This is a joint presentation of Family Violence Project and the Kennebec County Task Force to End Domestic Abuse.
